

Transcription Disclaimer & "Key" Sheet

Disclaimer:

1. All participants of this project gave written permission to the Tallahassee Genealogical Society to publish the photocopies of their Bible pages.
2. Transcriptions are the volunteer's best effort to read and transcribe the original photocopy; however, you should always refer to the primary document in your research.
3. Transcriptions reflect the actual written text on the documents.
4. The Tallahassee Genealogical Society makes no claim as to the accuracy of submitted materials.

Transcription Key:

1. The top line is the 3 digit Bible "control number" for internal tracking purposes.
2. Other marks - the transcribers
  - a. used ( ) parenthesis -- for any parenthesis listed in the actual bible record
  - b. used { } curly brackets -- for comments by the owner/submitter of the record
  - c. used [ ] square brackets -- for transcriber's notes or any characters they were unsure of
3. If the transcriber could not read a character or group of characters, an _ (underline) was used for each character.
4. Locations: U.S. state abbreviations were used; other countries were spelled out; and if known, city or county names were listed before the State(s).

The original photocopied Bible pages, from which this project was produced, are available for review at the Florida State Archives.
