Additional Surnames: DuBignon, Granberry, Kindon, Lynes, Bush, Atkinson, Rockhill

Date range: 1843 - 1955

Locations: Glynn County, GA; Atlanta, GA; Tallahassee, FL

History of the Bible: In 1997 the bible records were in the possession of Charlotte Hazeltine Granberry Gillespie, of Atlanta, GA, a descendant of William Turner through Florida DuBignon Turner Granberry. However, as of 1999 the bible is in the custodial care of E. Lynn McLarty, of Tallahassee, FL, an in-law to the family. The title page was provided. The bible was passed to Charlotte Hazeltine Granberry Gillespie from her maternal grandmother, Florida DuBignon Turner Granberry, who was born in Tallahassee, FL in 1868. The original owner was W. Turner (DuBignon) whose name appears on the cover page of the bible. Per E. Lynn McLarty: "Of interest is that the cover page with the name W. Turner was originally "Wm. T. DuBignon, and after the name change in 1875, he scratched out his old name of DuBignon." In 1993 these records were also submitted to the Florida Pioneer Descendants Certificate Program.

Additional materials: A letter from E. Lynn McLarty dated January 20, 1997.

See 2 pages of typed transcription by E. Lynn McLarty, dated February 22, 1997, followed by the bible pages.

This document is to certify that I personally photocopied the family information section of the Bible originally belonging to William Turner. This Bible is in the possession of my mother-in-law, Charlotte Hazeltine Granberry Gillespie, who lives in Atlanta, Georgia. Information in this Bible was used to substantiate the blood lineage when applying for the Florida Pioneer Certificate in 1993.

It must be noted that William Turner was born William Turner DuBignon but he changed his name through the Superior Court, Glynn County, Georgia in 1875. Some children were born DuBignon, others were born Turner.

Respectfully submitted,
